

First Week of Virtual Learning Done!

The first week of Virtual Learning at LJ is done! The overall feedback from the first week has really been positive! As parents, I hope that each of us are having a positive experience. If you are not, and need additional support, please reach out to Mr. Magliola (mimagliola@fcps.edu) or to me personally (rfbrown2011@gmail.com). The Administrative staff at LJ has worked hard all week to support every family, so please reach out if you need additional support.
